The Reefs Honoured for 14th Consecutive Year in Travel + Leisure World's Best Awards
The Reefs and La Serena Spa are the only Bermuda property to be featured in 2011 awards

SOUTHAMPTON, Bermuda — For the 14th consecutive year, The Reefs has been named among the Top 25 Hotels in the Caribbean, Bermuda and Bahamas in the Travel + Leisure World's Best Awards. The Reefs' La Serena Spa also made its debut on the list, being named among the Top 10 Best Hotels Spas in the Caribbean.

The Reefs was the only Bermuda hotel and resort spa to be honoured in the 2011 Travel + Leisure World's Best Awards. The Reefs earned a score of 87.93, ranking No. 23 on the list. La Serena Spa earned a score of 92.94, ranking No. 6.

"To be consistently recognized for fourteen years by the discerning Travel + Leisure readers is truly an honour that we are extremely proud of," says Nagma Walker, General Manager at The Reefs. "While The Reefs has continued to add services and amenities over the years, our dedication to providing exceptional service and a relaxing Bermuda vacation have remained the same."

"I am also extremely proud of the leadership and staff at La Serena Spa who exemplify The Reefs' personal service," adds Ms. Walker. "The recognition by Travel + Leisure is well-deserved."

The 2011 Travel + Leisure World's Best Awards are online now at www.travelandleisure.com and will be in the August issue of the magazine available on newsstands July 22.

Travel + Leisure's sixteenth annual awards are based upon the results of the World's Best survey, which asks readers to rate their favourite hotels, cities, islands, cruise lines, airlines, car-rental agencies, spas, tour operators and safari outfitters. Hotels are rated based on rooms, facilities, location, service, restaurant, food and value.

The Reefs President Mr. David Dodwell also owns Nisbet Plantation Beach Club on Nevis, which was recognized in the 2011 World's Best Awards as the No. 1 hotel in the Caribbean for the second consecutive year.
